An expansion project is underway at Three Rivers Bank on Idaho Street in Kalispell.

Crews dig in for local bank expansion.

Wildlife chief outlines grizzly delisting plan.

HELENA (AP) — The wildlife chief outlines the grizzly delisting plan.

The contractor on the expansion project is expected to be complete in January 2015. The project is expected to be complete by June 1. The $2.8 million expansion will begin June 1. The addition will expand the building about 24 feet to the north, with a basement, main level and an upper floor. Each floor of the existing building will be remodeled. Drive-through lanes will be expanded from three to four, and entrance and exits to the property will be reconfigured.

"It's very exciting," said John King, the bank's chief executive officer. Construction is underway now on a parking lot to the north. Work on a 5,100-square-foot addition to the existing building will start June 1, King said. The addition will expand the building about 24 feet to the north, with a basement, main level and an upper floor. Each floor of the existing building will be remodeled, drive-through lanes will be expanded from three to four, and entrance and exits to the property will be reconfigured.

"We decided to expand to the north to the north. We're working on a parking lot over to the property is under construction," said John King, the bank's chief executive officer.

The contractor on the $2.8 million project is Hammerquist Casalegno, the architect is CTA and all subcontractors are local, King said.

According to King, the project is expected to be complete by January 1, 2015.